NORTHVILLE- PLACID TRAIL TREK #6

Difficult Trek, 50 miles

This trip is strictly backpacking. Starting at the Adirondack Loj in Lake Placid and ending at Blue Mountain Lake's Adirondack Museum. Take in amazing and wild experiences along the trail, visiting Lean-tos and crossing rolling streams. Bear barrels are mandatory in the High Peaks region, some available for use, or bring your own. Enjoy a taste of the high peaks splendor on this magnificent hike!

Maximum Trek numbers vary depending on location, from 8-12 including guide, please contact our Camp Director at Michael.Petipas@scouting.org to confirm numbers

LOWS LAKE TREK #1

Beginner Trek, around 25-40 miles

Visit remote corners of Lows Lake and find lazy bass easy for fishing. You pick what and how much to do in this unique trek experience – from backpacking, hiking, canoeing and more –customized to your group's interest and skill level!

MARMADUKE CANOE TREK #7

Difficult Trek, 40-50 miles

This trek emulates the legend of "Marmaduke". Begin this trek with a scenic half day paddle to the west end of Lows Lake where the group begins a long canoe carry to the headwaters of the Oswegatchie River. The three-mile carry may be done in one day or as an overnight venture. While canoeing toward Cranberry Lake, you will pass through many sights in some of the most remote areas of the Adirondacks!

CRANBERRY LAKE TREK #2

Intermediate Trek, 20-70 miles

This trek is split into two components: hiking the remote trails of the Cranberry Lake's wild forest and paddling through the water of Cranberry Lake itself. One of the largest lakes in the Adirondacks, Cranberry Lake offers several deep bays and miles of forested shoreline ripe for exploration!

LONG LAKE TO TUPPER LAKE TREK #3

Beginner-Intermediate Treks, 50-70 miles

You launch your canoes at Long Lake; from there you paddle the picturesque locale making camp at places like Plumbley's Landing. With a couple of short portages to test your resolve your group will pass through the backwaters of the Raquette River. Finally, you will make your way and conquer Tupper Lake. This trip is ideal for eager canoeists and is a classic trip on any paddler's map!

BLUE MOUNTAIN LAKE TO LONG LAKE TREK #4

Intermediate Trek, 30 miles

This trek is another canoeist paradise. Starting at Blue Mountain Lake, you will paddle through connecting waterways to the fabled Raquette Lake ending on Long Lake. A couple short portages are present to keep you honest. Breathtaking views are abundant, making memories that will last you a lifetime!

HIGH PEAKS TREK #8

Difficult Trek, # miles

Explore the views of the High Peaks with this totally unique trek. Customize your mountain adventure with points like Mt. Marcy, Lake Colden, Avalanche Pass, and more! This trek does not require a buddy tag or swim test, but be prepared, determined and flexible. Being in the High Peaks Region, bear barrels are required by local law, some available for use or bring your own.

ROCKER QUEST TREK #9

Beginner-Intermediate, 50+ miles

For those who have 'done it all' in-camp, we offer the Sabattis Rocker Quest! Hike, bike and canoe from the west end of Lows Lake to the shores of Horseshoe Lake on this ultra-customizable trek, stopping at all 20 of our unique Rocker Points. Spend 2-4 nights honing your outdoor skills in the wilderness, and on your return, receive the Rocker Quest patch!

OFF YOUR ROCKER QUEST TREK #10

Intermediate, 50+ miles

Continue the adventure and fun once you complete the Rocker Quest, with Sabattis Off Your Rocker Quest! Customize your journey of the wild and unknown of the Bog River Flow area of the Adirondacks. Search for and discover lost and little-known points of Sabattis and local history. Travel to locations like the fire tower on Cat Mountain, Lows Lower Dam and other forgotten historical markers, all interspersed with sights very few have seen before!

FLEX TREK #11

Beginner-Intermediate, 50+ miles

Everyone loves to mix it up a little or a lot. We certainly do! The result is expanded freedom with flexible Trek planning options. Take any sections from our treks and combine them to create an ultimately unique experience. Go from hiking the High Peaks to canoeing down Lows Lake or exploring the northern trails while taking a day to canoe. It's all your choice!

CRANBERRY 50 TREK #5

Difficult Trek, 40-55 miles

This hike covers a 50-mile trail through the largest stand of old growth forest in the Adirondack Mountains. The trail is mostly flat, but affords such scenes as High Falls, Cranberry Lake, and Chair Rock Flow. The Cranberry Lake 50 offers much for new hikers and those seeking to study the environment alike, with peaceful old growth forest and back country ponds only accessible to hikers!
