

The Great Outdoors- August 23-27, 2021

The Great Outdoors week at Camp Woodland combines environmental education with fun hands on learning. Look deeper at what it means to "do a good turn", use resources wisely, be considerate in the outdoors and be conservation minded. Come get your hands dirty while having fun in the great outdoors of Camp Woodland.

Scouts will be introduced to the National Outdoor Award Program, Keep America Beautiful Hometown Award, as well as the Youth Award, Youth award with Bronze and Silver Honors of the new BSA Distinguished Conservation Service Award. They will work on earning the Environmental Science, Soil and Water Conservation and Citizenship in the World Merit Badges as well as the Scouts BSA World Conservation Award and Conservation Good Turn Award.
